The object of the meeting was the consideration of the condition of the country. We may perhaps revert to the subject again at a future day.

ICE, ICE.-Messrs. ALVA GAGE & Co., the popular Ice merchants of this city, have turned a cold shoulder on the community, but we are gratified to state that no offence will be taken, and the citizens of the Upper Wards appreciate their endeavors to keep down the perspiration. JOHN E. CAREW. P. J. PORCHER. TRIAL OF THE PALMETTO.—The new steam fire engine of the Palmetto Company received its christening yesterday afternoon from the hands of the Company, and proved in every respect worthy of their confidence. At her first trial the spectators were astonished to see the stream of water sent a distance of 240 feet, and the Palmetto boys have already visions of a silver cup floating before their eyes. Under the management of Mr. FUBLONG, the engineer of the Company, the new machine will prove a bold competitor for the prize, as he reports that although she is just from the hands of her makers she worked smoothly and easily. THE CHARITY OF MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA .- The

FIREMEN'S RELORDS.—We have had the pleasure of examining a Parchment Scroll of the Hope Fire Company, which has just emerged from the hands of Mr. Chas. Hickey, and is now on exhibition at his store in the bend of King strect. The printing is on vellum and bears the names of the first founders of the Hope Company : SAMUEL D. CAM-ERON, JOSEPH A. THOURON, WILLIAM L. DUVAL, NUMA J. BLOME, JOHN J. BOTDEN, PETER C. MOUS-SEAU, CHRISTOPHER C. TEUMBO, HENRY M. NORRIS, JAMES W. LAMOTTE, DAVID H. DEVEAUX. The figure of Hope leaning on the anchor occupies the centre of the piece, while over it on either side are the shields, one bearing the date of the organization of the company, October 10, 1842, and the other its incorporation in December 19, 1843. The motto of the company, "ne cede malis," and their name complete the picture; but the attention is soon drawn to the frame where the gilding of a master hand is recognized. The top of the frame has a fine representation of a hand engine, while the lower part bears the hose reel, and in the corners are firemen's hats and crossed axes, the whole being beautifully gilt. This Parchment is one of the most cherished archives of the Hope Company, and they had determined that, in preserying it, they would also make it ornamental. A glance at Mr. HICKEY's window will at once testify that their attempt has been successful, and they are now in the possession of an ornament to their hall that would rejoice any fireman's heart. The Scroll was lately presented to the Hope Company by Mr. JOSEPH A. THOURON, one of the founders, in whose possession it had been for a number

ST. MARKS CHURCH FAIR .- St. Marks Church, corner of Chapel and Elizabeth streets, was originally built for the congregation now worshipping at St. Lukes, but upon the completion of their church edifice corner of Charlotte and Elizabeth streets the former building was transformed to a newly formed congregation of colored people, who elected Rev. Mr. SEABROOK as their Rector. There is also a select school connected with the parish. Funds being wanted for church and school, not an unusual contingency now a days in this part of the world, the Sewing Circle, composed of members of the congregation, struck upon the happy idea of instituting a Fair. They worked industriously for many weeks, and procured Horton's building in Meeting street, east side, between Pinckney and Hasel street, for the purpose, and fully inform their friends and the public that they opened their Bazar on Monday evening. We will receive at par, for the next ten days, bills revisited the scene that night, but owing to a press of matter our notice could not be printed in yes- for dry goods.

terday's News. The hall, although large, is not otherwise well adapted for such a display; but its centra I situation, perhaps, more than counterbalances such disadvantages. The hall is handsomely decorated with flowers

There was promenading, flirting, etc., in short we found this colored fair in all respect resemble the many white counterparts we have seen in our city. We hope the members of the Sewing Circle will be successful in their laudable efforts, and realize a sum not altogether nisproportionate to the pains they were at to get up the Fair. Among the attractions we must not forget a colored band of music, which performed vigorously during the en-

MAYOR'S COURT, April 23 .- Henry Taylor, a youth connected with the club mentioned yesterday, who indulge in the "grab game," was arraigned and convicted, on the testimony of a lady, who stated that she was going up King street on Monday afternoon, and that seeing this boy approaching her she made way for him, so that he might take the inside, and, as he came abreast of her, he snatched her purse from her hand, containing sixteen dollars, and ran off with it. Give Nature a Lift. PEOPLE EXPECT TOO MUCH OF NATURE. THEY trifle with their health and cheir constitutions, and then are surprised that they fall sick.

The pressure of constant mental or bodily labor, upon the animal powers, is tremendous. Very few systems and constitutions can bear up against this pressure unassisted.
